

For Immediate Release
April 2007

"Keeping Your Head Above Water" Impacts the Community

Toronto - Why We Are Here's (WWAH) 6th Annual Youth & Community Awards Show "Keeping Your Head Above Water" has proven itself a hit. Let's once again celebrate the achievements of youths and leaders who have impacted the community.

Show & Tell

Through acknowledgement and celebration of individual and community achievement, the Keeping Your Head Above Water Youth & Community Awards Show sets a foundation to uplift every generation. Reiterates Program Coordinator Norgie Williams, "The African saying 'It Takes A Village to Raise A Child' resonates through the awarding of individuals we are all capable of emulating. The show celebrates the successes of exceptional community leaders and youths so that we continue striving for excellence. This is the only awards show that celebrates youths from grade 1-12, highlighting the fact that excellence can be achieved early and instilled for a lifetime."

FAQ's

In existence for 8 years, WWAH fosters the will to succeed in youths. Through the operation of community programs, WWAH successfully integrates anger management with programs in basketball, dance, crafts, chess, and drama. Giving children and their family's skills that will last a lifetime. WWAH supports youth in crisis by providing referrals to appropriate resources.

The 2007 Keeping Your Head Above Water Youth & Community Awards Show includes: • Special Guest Performances • Exhibitors Booths • Celebrity Hosts • Prizes and Much More!

Supporters for the 2007 Event include:

Future Aces Foundation, A Different Booklist, Big It Up, South Pole Clothing Co. AfroToronto.com, Lite It Up Candles, Blackboard International, 8Rooks.com, I.S.I.S. Circle, Friends in Trouble, Share, AfroToronto.com, Visions of Science, Visions in Green, Fitness 365.

Contact Information: Norgie @ 647/273-4332 www.whywearehere.com
Why We Are Here's 6th Annual Keeping Your Head Above Water Community & Youth Awards June 18, 2007, 7:30-9:30 p.m. Recital Hall at York University